FENCING PHOTOGRAPHY

Photographing fencing is not easy. I have been trying for years with limited success. If only I'd read this great article sooner. Lots of common sense advice on equipment and technique all written in a humorous style. It includes some nice photos too.

The Top tip I took away was “look for technically deficient fencers, what you want is big acrobatic moments from fencers relying on athleticism not skill!”!

Remember to ask permission of the people (or parents of children) you are photographing.

TRAINING SESSIONS – Half an hour of fitness and footwork, then half an hour of bladework. This week the focus is on the sabreurs! If you don't have the training session Zoom details then contact us to request them.

SOCIAL – Tune into the Zoom Room on Tuesday at 8.00. Here's the link (click here) or use the details below
